HOW TO APPLY

1

(1) Apply on-line at <http://www.universityadmissions.se> by the deadline.

2

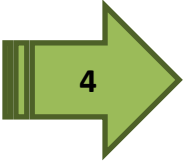

(2) Submit supporting documents with academic documentation to University Admissions in Sweden. Please make sure to check whether or not you are obliged to send the documents or if they can be uploaded.

The exact nature of these documents can vary depending on your nationality and in which country you have completed your previous studies. Please see <http://www.universityadmissions.se> to check what documents are required in your specific case, and how they should be submitted.

Deadline is 1 February 2017. If you are sending documents, this is the latest date they should have arrived at University Admissions in Sweden.

3

(3) You will need to pay the application fee if you are a citizen of a country outside of the European Union (EU), European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland. There are some exceptions to this general rule, please check them at <http://www.universityadmissions.se>. Note that the application fee must be received by 1 February 2017.

(4) In addition to the general supporting documents you will also need to submit programme specific documentation:

To be submitted by the student, at the latest by 1 February 2017:

- Applicant Summary (also called EMP Covering Letter) 2017-2019, including the names and addresses of two referees, preferably one academic and one work related.
- Statement of Purpose
Your Statement of Purpose should cover the following: 1.) Describe yourself, special interests, extra-curricular activities, and how you came into contact with environmental issues. 2.) How do you hope to profit from the MSc programme? 3.) Upon completion of the MSc programme, what are your future plans?
- Curriculum Vitae / Resumé

To be sent in by your referees:

Letters of Recommendation (two): Preferably one academic and one work related. Please send the instructions for reference letters and your cover sheet printed from www.universityadmissions.se to your referees. In order to match the reference letters with your application it is essential that your cover sheet is sent together with the recommendation letter. These documents must be sent directly by the referee to:

University Admissions in Sweden
FE 20102
839 87 Östersund
Sweden

If for some reason a referee does not agree to this, the applicant can send the letter to University Admissions in Sweden provided your referee has put the recommendation letter in a sealed envelope and written his/her signature across the seal. Note that these documents should have arrived by 1 February 2017.

(5) A voluntary but encouraged step! Shoot a one-minute where you present yourself and your interest in the programme. Share via the web (e.g. YouTube) and send us the link to msc.program@iiee.lu.se. Deadline 1 February 2017.
