

LUNDS
UNIVERSITET

Masters Programme in Environmental Management and Policy

HOW TO APPLY

1

(1) Apply on-line at <http://www.universityadmissions.se> by the deadline.

2

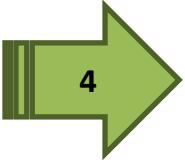

(2) Submit supporting documents with academic documentation to University Admissions in Sweden by the deadline. Please make sure to check whether or not you are obliged to send the documents or if they can be uploaded.

The exact nature of these documents can vary depending on your nationality and in which country you have completed your previous studies. Please see <http://www.universityadmissions.se> to check what documents are required in your specific case, and how they should be submitted.

3

(3) If applicable, pay the application fee if you are a citizen of a country outside of the European Union (EU), European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland. There are some exceptions to this general rule, please check them at <http://www.universityadmissions.se>. Note the deadline for payment!

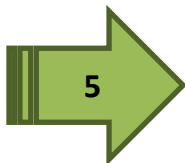

(4) Submit programme specific documentation. Deadline for these is the same dates as for academic documents. You find templates on <https://www.iiee.lu.se/education/masters-programmes/admissions-process>

- Applicant Summary , including the names and addresses of two referees, preferably one academic and one work related.
- Statement of Purpose
Your Statement of Purpose should cover the following: 1.) Describe yourself, special interests, extra-curricular activities, and how you came into contact with environmental issues. 2.) How do you hope to profit from the MSc programme? 3.) Upon completion of the MSc programme, what are your future plans?
- Curriculum Vitae / Resumé. No specific format is required.

To be sent in by your referees:

Letters of Recommendation, preferably one academic and one work related. Please send the instructions for reference letters to your referees .These documents must be sent directly by the referee to University Admissions in Sweden. Address can be found via this link

If for some reason a referee does not agree to send the letter, the applicant can send the letter to University Admissions in Sweden provided your referee has put the recommendation letter in a sealed envelope and written his/her signature across the seal.

(5) A voluntary but encouraged step! Shoot a one-minute where you present yourself and your interest in the programme. Share via the web (e.g. YouTube) and send us the link to msc.program@iiee.lu.se. Deadline 1 February 2019.
